

“ALL ABOARD CLEBURNE”
COMMUNITY PROMOTION PROGRAM
APPLICATION

This application must be completed in its entirety for consideration, and the City Council of the City of Cleburne has sole authority to approve or deny any application, or to terminate or extend the program at its discretion. Upon completion, application shall be emailed to grady.easdon@cleburne.net. Time-stamped, emailed application serves as placeholder until signed and notarized hard copy is received by the City of Cleburne.

The opportunity to serve as a promotional partner is only available to businesses who meet the following criteria:

- Business must be located within the city limits of Cleburne, established with the Secretary of State, and proof of ownership will be required; no non-registered sole proprietorships, home-based businesses, or non-profits will be eligible
- Business must have a physical location exclusively for commercial purposes
- Business has been open prior to January 1, 2020
- Business must be current on property taxes, if applicable
- Business has no more than fifty (50) employees (excludes restaurants)
- Proof that business is currently open and operational unless mandated by executive orders to be closed due to COVID-19
- Proof of application for one of the Small Business Administration’s (SBA) emergency loan programs as established by the CARES Act (i.e. “PPP”, “EIDL”) or other federal business relief program(s)
- National chains and franchises associated with a parent company are not eligible

Please certify that your business meets ALL criteria
